

What If We Could Save The Lives of Eight Men? Or Should the State of Arkansas Execute Them?

Be a part of the public discussion • Participate with your questions

Saturday, April 15th, 2017 • 11:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

Peterson Auditorium, Shewmaker Center for Global Bus. Dev.

(On the campus of NWA Community College, One College Drive, Bentonville, AR)

PANEL PRESENTERS

Michael L. Radelet, Professor, University of Colorado at Boulder

Furonda Brasfield, Director of Arkansas Coalition to Abolish the Death Penalty

To Be Determined, Prosecuting Attorney

Phillip Martin, NWA Online

Don Morrow, Pastor, First Christian Church/Waterway, Bentonville

Sheila Pursell, Director, NWA Catholic Respect Life Council

Jay Saxton, Chief Public Defender, Benton County, Arkansas

11:30 a.m. Welcome – Jon Comstock, Moderator

11:35-12:30 Panel Presentations

12:30 to 1:30 Discussion With Audience

GET ANSWERS TO THESE QUESTIONS

- What purpose does the death penalty serve for Arkansans?
- Should we retain the death penalty or replace with life without parole?
- Why execute 8 men during the month of April 2017 immediately following Easter Week?
- Do “We the people” want our Arkansas Governor to kill these men?
- Can family members get closure to their pain by ending the life of the perpetrator?
- Will others be deterred from engaging in such heinous conduct as got them to this place?

Please direct Inquiries to PublicDiscussionNWA@gmail.com

