

Thank you,
Co-sponsors:

PUBLIC DISCUSSION NWA

In collaboration with our co-sponsors, examine:

ALL SAINTS'
EPISCOPAL CHURCH
IGLESIA EPISCOPAL
TODOS LOS SANTOS

Compassion
Fayetteville

Shantell Colunga
& Quinton Smith

FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH AND WATERWAY

THE
COMMUNITY FIT
WORK HARD. LIFT EACH OTHER UP.

Dick Bennett

Passionate for Justice: Ida B. Wells, a Prophet for Our Time

Who was Ida B. Wells?

What lessons do we learn from the example of Ida B. Wells?
Are we being "watchmen" to safeguard gender and race equality?
What does a statue in our midst mean?

"The way to right wrongs is to turn the light of truth upon them."

— Ida B. Wells

When: Saturday, April 4, 2020 at 1:00 to 3:30 p.m.

Where: Walmart Auditorium, 1000 SE Eagle Way,
NWACC Campus, Bentonville, AR

REFLECTIVE OPPORTUNITY (15 min.)

Circle Cycles, a poem by Derek Caquelin

Stand Up by Cynthia Erivo – Performed by The Gachuzo Sisters, Jezakia and Ja'Mya;
With dance accompaniment by Al'Nicx, Kamree Clark-Jenkins and Jerjuan Edwards

PANEL PRESENTERS (Audience Participation After Each Speaker)

Raven Cook 10 min.	A Learning & Introduction of Catherine Meeks
Catherine Meeks 60 min.	Passionate for Justice, Ida B. Wells, As Prophet For Our Time
Sheree Miller 10 min.	A Statue In Our Midst
Elecia C. Smith 10 min.	Truth, Racial Healing & Transformation Campus Center, U of A
Stephanie Ensinger 10 min.	A Visit to Spaces of the Civil Rights Movements, including the National Memorial for Peace and Justice
Moderator	Overview: Are you impatient for change?
Jeffrey Allen Murdock	Performance: The University of Arkansas Inspirational Chorale

Moderated by Jon Comstock, Former Benton County Circuit Judge.
Direct inquiries to 479.659.1767

Free to public • No preregistration required • Light refreshments provided

PANEL PRESENTATION:
Race In Arkansas: Benton
County's Ida B. Wells Event

Public Discussion NWA is an activity of Comstock Conflict Resolution Services and The Liberty Initiative.

Visit Public
Discussion NWA
on Facebook