

PUBLIC DISCUSSION NWA

Public Discussion NWA and Co-Sponsors Compassion Fayetteville/Northwest Arkansas and the OMNI Center For Peace

Present:

A Soldier In Our Midst: Pride for Some, Pain for Others

WHEN: SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 9, 2017
12:00 NOON TO 2:00 P.M.

WHERE: Walmart Auditorium in the Shewmaker Center for Workforce Technologies, NWACC Campus,
One College Drive, Bentonville, Arkansas

WHO: You – Members of Our Community AND panel presenters (TBD)

OUR GUIDE:

“Dignity is a human phenomenon. Our desire for it is our highest common denominator. We all want it, seek it, and respond in the same way when others violate it.”

- From Dignity: The Essential Role It Plays In Resolving Conflict, by Donna Hicks (2011)

WHAT DO YOU THINK?

You and I have an opportunity to demonstrate to each other that we have the courage and fortitude to listen to each other – even when we have different opinions on the subject. The Confederate Soldier on the Bentonville Square is worth a healthy conversation – don’t you think? Is it really only all about “move it” or “keep it”? Can we not expand the discussion to how to best assure respect and dignity to each of us and our families?

Be a part of the public sharing! Participate with your comments and questions.*

Moderated by – Jon Comstock - Taking your comments & questions at

*PublicDiscussionNWA@gmail.com

DISCLAIMER: This event is not affiliated with or sponsored by NWACC in any way. Its facilities are made available to the public for public use pursuant to the terms of a Facilities Rental Agreement.

Public Discussion NWA is an activity of Comstock Conflict Resolution Services